

Stay Connected

Recharge Your Career

Top 10 reasons to come to Scranton for the 33rd Annual POTA Conference, October 22nd and 23rd, 2010

10

It's easy to get here – right off I-81, Penna Turnpike, I-84 and Route 380.
The Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Airport is only 10 minutes away.

9

The Conference location is right in the heart of downtown – a small but vibrant city. Many restaurants and shops are within one or two blocks of the hotel.

8

The venue is adjacent to the University of Scranton and near Misericordia University. Special events are planned.

7

Explore our coal mining history: Steamtown National Historic Park is right in town and you can tour a real coal mine at nearby McDade Park.

6

See our renowned wheelchair accessible tree house overlooking the gorge at Nay Aug Park, and the accessible playground nearby.

5

Scranton has a wealth of historic architecture, self tours are available.

4

The fall colors of NEPA are spectacular in late October.

3

If you love Irish pubs, you must come to Scranton.

2

Home of The Office. A self-guided tour of sites featured in various episodes is available. Memorabilia is available at the nearby Steamtown Mall.

1

Stay connected and recharge your career in the Electric City!